14	Programme Rationale & Aims
	For Foundation Year (year zero), see Foundation Year programme specification. This programme is part of the portfolio of BA Languages programmes offered by the School of Arts, and is related to the BA Global Politics and International Relations offered by the School of SSHP. It offers evening, face-to-face study, combining the study of a modern foreign language and global politics to a high level. The aim of the languages component of the programme is to allow students to reach a high level of competence in a modern foreign language (French, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, or Spanish); to study the associated culture(s) of the language and to acquire advanced knowledge of a range of comparative cultural topics. In common with its 'sister' programme, the well-established and successful BA Global Politics and International Relations, the BA Languages and Global Politics also aims to provide students with the main theoretical, conceptual and empirical skills required for understanding and explaining contemporary global politics. In line with the interdisciplinary nature of the Department of Politics, the programme draws on a wide range of resources from political theory and philosophy, political science, and the traditions of political and historical sociology. Students study this programme in a three-year full-time, four-year-full-time, four-year part-time or six-year decelerated mode. Students taking the four-year full-time 'with International Experience' programme will spend a year of study (normally the third year) in a country in which the language they are studying is spoken. Please note: students must make satisfactory progress during year 1 and 2 of their degree to be eligible for a Year Abroad. Additionally, the non-UK partner institution may set its own entrance criteria, including, but not limited to, academic criteria, language requirements and visa requirements. In instances where a student does not meet the eligibility criteria for an approved Year Abroad, their registration may be transferred to the corresponding BA programme pathway without the 'with International Experience' designation. Distinctive features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The BA Language and/with Global Politics aims to provide students with a rigorous academic programme in the combined fields of a language and global politics. • The distinctive nature of the languages component of the programmes lies in the flexibility of our languages offering, which extends to the full range of languages taught at Birkbeck (currently French, German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese and Spanish) and allows entry at a variety of levels of language competence. • For most of the European languages included in this programme, language entry levels are at one of five levels, as defined in the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR): Level A1 (Beginners); Level A2 (GCSE or equivalent);

	Level B1 (AS/A level or equivalent); Level B2 (A level + or equivalent); Level C1 (Proficiency). Please note that Portuguese can only be studied from B1 level onwards. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Japanese there are four basic entry levels, all pegged to the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT): Beginners, Upper Beginner, Intermediate, Upper Intermediate. • After three years (full-time), students who start with approximately A-level standard language competence will attain a level which conforms to the ‘typical’ exit level equivalent to CEFR Level C1/C2, as defined in the QAA benchmark statement for ‘Languages and related studies’, or JLPT Level N2. The degree awarded is BA French (or German, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Spanish) and Global Politics. • Those full-time or part-times students who start at CEFR A1 or JLPT N5 (Language 1) or full-time students who start with CEFR A2 or JLPT N5 (Language 2) will exit with either CEFR B2 or JLPT N4-N3 (Language 3) or CEFR C1 or JLPT N3-N2 (Language 4). In this case the degree awarded is BA Global Politics with French (or German, Italian, Japanese, Spanish). • Students on the ‘with International Experience’ programme will be able to work or study in a country in which the language they are studying is spoken for a year in order to provide them with an opportunity to develop their language skills and their knowledge of the culture of the language-speaking area, as well as to acquire a range of transferable personal, academic and employability skills.

15	Entry Criteria For Foundation Year (year zero), see Foundation Year programme specification. We welcome applicants without traditional entry qualifications as we base decisions on our own assessment of qualifications, knowledge and previous work experience. We may waive formal entry requirements based on judgement of academic potential. If you wish to study French, German, Italian, Japanese or Spanish, this programme is suitable for all language entry levels, from beginners' to proficiency, including native speaker level. UCAS TARIFF POINTS: 104-128 The UCAS tariff score is applicable if applicants have recently studied a qualification that has a UCAS tariff equivalence. FOUNDATION YEAR DEGREES UCAS TARIFF POINTS: You can progress onto the BA Language and/with Global Politics if you successfully complete the foundation year of our BA Arts and Humanities with Foundation Year course. This is an ideal route onto an undergraduate degree if you are returning to study after a gap, or if you have not previously studied this subject, or if you didn't achieve the grades you need for a place on this degree. INTERNATIONAL ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

If English is not your first language or you have not previously studied in English, our usual requirement is the equivalent of an International English Language Testing System (IELTS Academic Test) score of 6.5, with not less than 6.0 in each of the sub-tests. For the BA Language and/or with History of Art with International Experience, please be aware that international students who require a Tier 4 visa will initially be provided with a CAS to study for the first two years of your course whilst at Birkbeck. During your third year of study at an institution abroad, you will be required to obtain a visa for that specific country. When you return to the UK to complete your fourth year, Birkbeck will issue you with a second CAS so that you can apply for another Tier 4 visa for your final year. You will therefore need to make a total of three visa applications – two for Birkbeck and one for the institution abroad.

16 Learning Outcomes
For Foundation Year (year zero), see Foundation Year programme specification. On successful completion of this programme a student will be expected to be able to: French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish A. Use of the target language <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Our French, German, Italian Portuguese and Spanish language courses have been mapped to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Stage 1 A1-A2 Stage 2 B1 Stage 3 B2 Stage 4 C1 Stage 5 C1/C2 The aims and objectives for each of these stages can be found in each corresponding module proposal. 2. Communicate fluently and appropriately, maintaining a high degree of grammatical accuracy, in the target language (TL), with competent or native speakers of the TL, to a level approximately equivalent to CEFR level B2 to C2, depending on starting level. 3. Be able to exploit for a variety of purposes and, as appropriate, to contextualise a broad range of materials in written or spoken TL appropriate to the level attained. 4. Be able to apply effectively and appropriately language skills in a professional context. B. Explicit knowledge of language <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 5. Demonstrate a detailed knowledge and effective understanding of the structures, registers and, as appropriate, varieties of TL. 6. Demonstrate a detailed knowledge and effective understanding of the linguistic principles required to analyse TL. (This aim applies to certain modules only.) C. Knowledge of related studies <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Demonstrate an ability critically to evaluate through appropriate methodologies one or more aspects of the arts, cultures, histories, institutions or linguistic situation of the societies in which TL is spoken. 8. Demonstrate a broad knowledge and, using appropriate methodologies, a critical understanding of the cultures and societies of countries in which TL is spoken gained through one or more of the creative media of TL.

D. Intercultural awareness and understanding

9. Demonstrate a reasoned awareness and critical understanding of one or more cultures and societies, other than the student's own.

Japanese

A. Use of the target language

1. With a focus especially on advancing students' reception skills, to demonstrate experience at comprehending Japanese at natural speed using audio-visual materials; to use original texts from a variety of sources and subject fields to develop their reading techniques including scanning and skimming for key information, reading extended paragraphs and complex sentences, and in-depth reading; to sustain complex conversations in social, cultural, and business situations using appropriate speech forms and politeness registers; to begin to acquire academic-level verbal communication skills, including participation in discussions, and preparing and delivering presentations; to write substantial reports and short essays based on texts read and discussed in class, using their knowledge of between 800-1,000 kanji characters and of appropriate compositional structure.

2. Demonstrate cultural sensitivity in communicative exchanges in Japanese.

B. Intellectual

3. Demonstrate a critical understanding of the key moments and concepts in the cultural/social history of modern Japan.

4. Identify and describe problems and to devise effective strategies for their resolution.

5. Demonstrate a reasoned awareness and critical understanding.

C. Practical

See 'use of target language', plus the following:

6. Gather, process and evaluate critically information from a variety of paper, audio-visual and electronic sources.

7. Use IT effectively, both as a means of communication and as an aid to learning.

D. Personal and Social

8. Communicate information, ideas and arguments cogently and coherently both orally and in writing with due regard to the target audience.

9. Be responsive to the discipline of working with others and to work effectively as part of a team.

10. Be an effective and self-aware independent learner.

Global Politics

1. Understand and employ the main concepts and theories used in the analysis of global politics, globalisation and international relations;

2. Critically examine arguments concerning the nature of the 'global' and the 'international' and the relationship between the two;

3. Understand the major transformations that have taken place in the international political and economic system in the modern period, and evaluate various explanations of these transformations;

4. Understand and critically assess the relationship between the state and the international system, as well as the role played by war in international politics;

5. Demonstrate a clear awareness of the importance of the relationship between theory and empirical evidence in the study of politics;

	6. Demonstrate proficiency in the employment of key analytical skills in the study of politics; 7. Use the skills developed in the programme for vocational and personal purposes, and potentially in further academic study.

17	Learning, teaching and assessment methods For Foundation Year (year zero), see Foundation Year programme specification. French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish Learning and teaching methods vary between Language modules and ‘Content’ modules, but in all cases the programme builds on tried and tested methods, and the collective experience and expertise deployed in existing modules within the Languages departments. Classes (90 minutes) adopt a mixed-mode delivery, part lecture, part student activity either singly or in small groups, part open discussion. The range of methods deployed is effective in retaining students’ attention after a day’s work. Varied use is made of the full range of available support materials and technologies, including Moodle. Supervised group and pair-work and short student presentations serve to vary the pace of classroom activity. Presentations also offer the opportunity for formative feedback, and may be used to prepare a written assignment. Language classes are up to 3 hours long. Activities are varied; the languages departments pioneered the use of learning software for languages, and have now extended this to Moodle, which allows access to additional targeted language learning materials. Regular homework is given and returned to students, with extensive feedback, usually within a week. The assessment pattern is varied for language modules and will usually include coursework, a written examination, an oral exam and a listening comprehension. Assessment for ‘content’ modules is via substantial end-of-term assignments, which foster independent learning and the developing of appropriate research skills. Some modules also have in-class tests and/or assessed presentations, critical reviews or bibliographies or similar. Japanese Learning and teaching methods vary between Language modules and ‘Content’ modules, but in all cases the programme builds on tried and tested methods, and the collective experience and expertise deployed in existing modules within the Languages departments. Learning, teaching, and assessment methods in Japanese include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lectures and presentation of knowledge aim to fulfil the intellectual aims of "knowledge and understanding of what is involved in the study of the field". In some cases, for example, Japanese cinema courses lecturing may form a small proportion of the class time. Students' understanding of the lecture/presentation material is reinforced by interactive discussion. This suits the varied student body, whose life experience and cultural background is a resource in the learning process. • Small group work is designed to allow students to undertake focused tasks in a supportive environment and to develop their creative, analytical, communication and interpersonal skills, as appropriate; • Discussion group work is designed to develop students critical and analytical, presentation and communication skills; • Tutorials, typically on a one-to-one basis, develop student skills in presenting and discussing ideas;

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Language classes all employ a task-driven syllabus, which serves to promote the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing). Students will be exposed to a variety of authentic materials (including written and audio/visual texts), and develop competency through a range of activities and exercises including individual, pair, and group work. Global Politics Teaching takes place in lectures and seminars. In seminars, a variety of methods are employed to engage students, including student presentations (individual and group), small group discussions, debates and so on. Lectures are supported by a detailed coursebook for each module that indicates relevant reading and guides further private study. Web-based resources are used to facilitate access to reading and other course materials. Assessment at level 4 is through short essays and in-class tests. Modules at levels 5 and 6 are assessed through coursework (essays) and examinations. Essays are compulsory, but essay marks only count towards the final module mark if they improve the exam mark. This means that essays can be treated as formative exercises, enabling students to obtain feedback but not jeopardising their opportunity to get a good result for the module in the exam. Written feedback on essays is provided within three weeks of submission, and students have the opportunity to clarify any feedback by contacting their lecturers and seminar leaders. Study abroad Students taking modules at one of our partner institutions will be assessed according to the methods employed at those institutions. Students not based at a university during their time abroad will be expected to submit work to Birkbeck in order to gain credits, including essays and a learning diary. All students may be required to take an oral exam on their return.

18	Programme Description For Foundation Year (year zero), see Foundation Year programme specification. All students on all versions of the programme will take in their first-year a compulsory, zero-weighted study skills module, called ‘Doing Cultures and Languages’. Three-year full-time, four-year part-time, six-year decelerated modes: All students, whether full-time or part-time, take 120 credits at each of Levels 4, 5 and 6. Full-time students therefore take Level 4 modules in Year One, Level 5 modules in Year Two and Level 6 modules in Year Three, whereas part-time students take 30 credits of Level 4 in Year Two and 30 credits of Level 6 in Year Three (of four). Normally, 150 credits are made of language and language ‘content’ modules and 150 credits are made up of English modules. Students can take the remaining 60 credits from either side of the programme. ‘With International Experience’ programmes: The degree will be made up of 420 credits. 360 credits will be taken at Birkbeck (in accordance with the already existing BA Language and/or with Global Politics programme). 60 credits will be awarded as APL for the study undertaken during the year abroad (normally as credit only without marks being recorded). This credit will normally be awarded at Level 5.

Students will be able to start the degree from beginners' level or above.

Year One = 120 credits at Birkbeck

Year Two = 120 credits at Birkbeck

Year Three = 60 credits at European partner institution

Year Four = 120 credits at Birkbeck

Language Pathways:

A student's programme of study is determined by his or her language pathway. The language pathway is determined by the student's level of proficiency in the language at entry. For the five European languages (French, German, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish), possible entry levels are as follows (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages entry/exit levels for these courses are given in brackets):

Language 1 (Beginners A1/Elementary A2)

Language 2 (Elementary A2/Intermediate B1)

Language 3 (Intermediate B1/Upper Intermediate B2)

Language 4 (Upper Intermediate B2/Advanced C1)

Language 5 (Advanced C1/Proficiency C2)

For Japanese, entry levels are as follows (with exit levels according to the Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) in brackets):

Japanese 1 (Complete beginner → Beginner N5)

Japanese 2 (Beginner N5 → Upper Beginner N5-N4)

Japanese 3 (Upper Beginner N5-N4 → Intermediate N4-N3)

Japanese 4 (Intermediate N4-N3 → Upper Intermediate N3-N2)

Japanese 5 (Upper Intermediate N3-N2 → Advanced N2)

For ALL languages, Language modules, stages 1-4, are offered at multiple Levels to allow students to take them at an appropriate level for their year of study, with additional learning outcomes and assessment elements at Levels 5 & 6. Language 5 is only offered at Level 6. (Students on Language Pathways D and E take Language 5 in Year Two.)

For ALL Language Pathways (except Pathway E), the Language module taken in the First Year is taken at Level 4, intermediate Language modules at Level 5, and the final Language module in the Pathway is taken at Level 6.

Pathway AA (not available for all languages)

Students take Language 1 (Level 4) in their first year, and intensive versions of Language 2 (Level 5) and Language 3 (Level 5) in their second year, Language 4 (Level 5 or 6) and Language 5 (Level 6) consecutively in subsequent years, depending on duration of study.

Pathway A

Students take Language 1 (Level 4) in their first year, Language 2 (Level 5), Language 3 (Level 5 or 6), Language 4 (Level 5 or 6) and Language 5 (Level 6) consecutively in subsequent years, depending on duration of study.

Pathway B

Students take Language 2 (Level 4) in their first year and Language 3 (Level 5), Language 4 (Level 5 or 6) and Language 5 (Level 6) consecutively in subsequent years, depending on duration of study.

Pathway C

Students take Language 3 (Level 4) in their first year and Language 4 (Level 5) and Language 5 (Level 6) consecutively in subsequent years.

Pathway D

Students take Language 4 (Level 4) in their first year and Language 5 (Level 6) in their second year.

Pathway E

Students take Language 5 (Level 6) in their second year.

The language modules in any given pathway are core modules and each is worth 30 credits.

Students on the 'with International Experience' degree will be tested for language competence before the start of their next year at Birkbeck and may be allowed to leave out one of the Birkbeck language module in order to take into account language skills gained while abroad (e.g. if a student takes Language 3 prior to studying abroad, he or she may be allowed to take Language 5 on his or her return).

The remainder of the language side of the programme consists of optional modules taken from the provision of 'content' modules available for each language. These are as follows:

Content modules can be taken as follows. All Level 4 modules are offered every year, alongside a balanced range of the following Level 5 and 6 options:

21	Student Attendance Framework – in brief
	The full version of the ‘Student Attendance Framework’ is available http://www.bbk.ac.uk/mybirkbeck/services/rules/Attendance-Framework.pdf . Principle Consistent and regular student attendance in class (or equivalent) promotes and affords student success. Inconsistent and irregular attendance is less likely to result in student success and is consistent with lower marks and degree classifications being achieved and awarded. Attendance expectation Birkbeck, University of London expects you to consistently attend all timetabled sessions, including lectures, seminars, group and individual tutorials, learning support sessions, workshops, laboratories, field trips, inductions and demonstrations. E-Registers All Birkbeck students are issued with student cards. Students are expected to take them to classes and to assessment venues and to present them to a member of staff if requested. This is for the purpose of identifying Birkbeck students.
22	Student Support and Guidance
	All Birkbeck students have access to a range of student support services, details can be found on our website here: http://www.bbk.ac.uk/mybirkbeck/services/facilities
23	Methods of Enhancing Quality and Standards
	The College has rigorous procedures in place for the monitoring and enhancing its educational provision. This includes regular monitoring of programmes drawing on feedback from various sources including external examiner's reports, student feedback, student achievement and progression data. In addition, departments are reviewed every four to five years through the internal review process that includes external input.
